

Competition & Change

CONTENTS

SPECIAL ISSUE*Regulation Theory and the European Union*Guest Editors: Charlie Dannreuther and Pascal Petit*Introduction

Charlie Dannreuther and Pascal Petit 99

Post-Fordism, Beyond National Models: The Main Challenges for Regulation Theory

Charlie Dannreuther and Pascal Petit 100

Globalisation and Regional Integration: A Comparative Analysis of Europe and East Asia

Pascal Petit 113

State- and Regulation-theoretical Perspectives on the European Union and the Failure of the Lisbon Agenda

Bob Jessop 141

The New Role and Status of Intellectual Property Rights in Contemporary Capitalism

Fabienne Orsi and Benjamin Coriat 162

Regulation Theory and the EU

Charlie Dannreuther 180

Social Structures of Accumulation, the Regulation Approach and the European Union

Terrence McDonough and Emlyn Nardone 200

Social Contingency: An Avenue for Engaging Régulation Theory with System Theory

Olivier Kessler 213

Hybrids and Regulation in the Global Political Economy

Jean-Christophe Graz 230

Is the Competition State the New, Post-Fordist, Mode of Regulation? Regulation Theory from an International Political Economic Perspective

Ronen Palan 246